CHAMBER BECOMES BOOMERS MOVEMENT TO ADVERTISE HEALTH SPAS IS STARTED AND AGENTS PREACH GOSPEL

The movement has been started by the chamber of commerce to make Colorado Springs the greatest health resort in the United States. This will be done by interesting the physicians throughout the country.

Allied with the movement is the plan of Dr. B. P. Anderson, chairman of the advertising committee of the chamber, to establish a casino, with broad plazas for lounging and promenading, and a large writing, reading and cafe room, where band or orchestra concerts will be given during the afternoons. This will be erected in the north part of the city, within easy distances of the hotels, for the use of invalids.

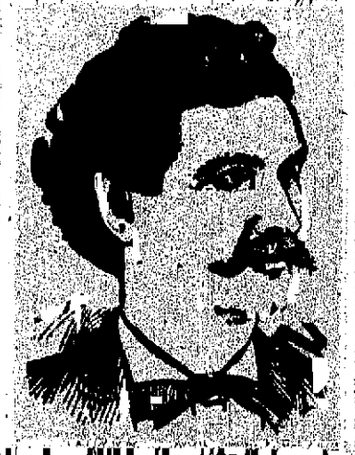
Pe-ru-na [illegible] Catarrh Wherever Located



F. Y. FITZPATRICK, M. C.

Hon. F. Y. Fitzpatrick, Congressman from Kentucky, writes from the National Hotel, Washington, D. C., as follows:

"At the solicitation of a friend, I used your Peruna and can cheerfully recommend your remedy to anyone suffering with catarrh or who needs a good tonic."—F. Y. Fitzpatrick.

Chronic catarrh often makes its approach in digestion. Before a person knows it he may become a victim of chronic catarrh. The onset may be gradual, its development insidious, but at last the victim finds himself in the clutches of an exhausting disease. A slight cold, a tendency to sneeze, a stuffiness in the nose and head, fullness or crackling in the ears, a tickly sensation in the throat, slight cough or wheeziness, snoring during sleep—any one of these symptoms should be regarded as a warning.

Peruna is the remedy for catarrh. Almost everybody knows that by hearsay and thousands know it by experience.

H. W. ODEN, M. C.

Hon. H. W. Oden, Congressman from Louisiana, in a letter written at Washington, D. C., says the following of Peruna, the national catarrh remedy:

"I can conscientiously recommend your Peruna as a fine tonic and all around good medicine to those who are in need of a catarrh remedy. It has been commended to me by people who have used it as a remedy particularly effective in the cure of catarrh. For those who need a good all-round medicine I know of nothing better."—H. W. Oden.

Hundreds of men of dignity and prominence from all over the United States indorse Peruna.

No other remedy receives such convincing testimonials. Send for free book of testimonials.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Ancient Order of United Workmen Lodges in Convention.

Jurisdictions Continue Today in Odd Fellows and K. P. Halls—Election of Officers.

The eleventh biennial convention of the grand lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen and the fifth session of the Degree of Honor began their state meeting yesterday morning. The morning session was devoted to routine business, after the address of welcome by Mayor Harris and the response by Past Master S. S. Abbott, who presided both orders met jointly at the Odd Fellow hall in Odd Fellows hall and later the Degree of Honor lodge adjourned to its hall.

The afternoon sessions of both orders were devoted to the reading of reports of officers and the appointment of special committees. The committee appointed early in the day on credentials reported, showing that about 80 delegates were in attendance at the A. O. U. W. meeting and 6 delegates to the Degree of Honor.

Harwick Coming.

Owing to the delay in the arrival of the trains from the east over the Rock Island, Past Supreme Master Workman Harwick of Albany, N. Y., did not arrive yesterday as was expected, but will be here to attend the sessions for the remainder of the convention.

In all there are about 130 delegates present from all parts of the jurisdiction, which includes Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona.

At the opening session this morning, which will occur at 9:30 o'clock, it is expected that the election of officers will take place. There are several candidates for some of the offices and of course are expecting to be reelected. Grand Master Abbott and Grand Foreman H. H. Malone of Denver are candidates for re-election and H. B. Tuttle of this city is also in the field to reward himself as grand recorder. There are two candidates for the office of grand receiver, F. M. Roberts of Canon City and W. A. Corwin of Pueblo. It is possible that other candidates will enter the field when the time comes for election. For medical examiner Dr. E. E. Dodds of Pueblo, present incumbent, and Dr. W. H. Moore of Canon City are candidates. W. A. Beecher of Ouray and A. C. Morse of Pueblo are hoping to be elected to the office of grand guide.

Prize Drill Today.

This afternoon will be devoted largely to the prize drill, which will take place at 2 o'clock. A number of lodges have signified their intention of entering the contest and it is certain that there will be three contestants. Denver, Central City and Idaho Springs will probably compete for the $400 cash prizes to be given by the grand lodge. Each team is to be composed of 11 members. The drill consists of going through the intricacy of evolutions and the team showing the greatest proficiency gets the prize.

The election of officers by the Degree of Honor is also expected to occur this morning. It is understood that Mrs. M. Alden, present grand chief of honor, will be a candidate for re-election, and Grand Recorder Carrie Raymon of Pueblo is said to desire to succeed her, although some rivalry exists in regard to both offices.

ANSWER TO SUIT

An answer [illegible] filed by the Colorado Springs & Cripple Creek District Railway company [illegible] in the suit of [illegible] Graham. The plaintiff alleges in his complaint that he was injured [illegible] to [illegible] as a result of the running of [illegible] by defendant [illegible] on the switch connecting the [illegible] of the plaintiff company [illegible] the [illegible] track. The defendant, in its answer, admits most of the allegations in the complaint but denies that the plaintiff has suffered damages in the amount claimed.

It is further pleaded as a defense that the statutes of the state and the ordinances of the city of Colorado Springs authorize the defendant to construct the tracks mentioned and to operate cars over them. And as an additional answer it is maintained by the defendant that whatever damage has resulted to the plaintiff has resulted in common with other property holders along the line of the tracks. This provision in itself, if proved, it is said, would be a sufficient answer to the plaintiff's claim for damages, as it is a provision of law that declares that damages in such a case do not constitute a cause of action unless the damage suffered was peculiar and in addition to that suffered by the public generally.

Two decrees of divorce were granted by Judge Chamberlain in the district court yesterday. One decree was granted to Mrs. Valeria B. Mott from her husband, George F. Mott. Cruelty was the allegation contained in the complaint.

Augusta D. Earle was granted the second decree from Edward K. Earle on the same allegations as those set forth in the complaint of Mrs. Mott. In connection with the suit of Mrs. Earle for divorce she had also filed a suit for separate maintenance but by agreement this suit was withdrawn yesterday and the alimony to be paid Mrs. Earle was settled out of court.

In the same court the case of W. L. Leffingwell against H. C. Clough et al was dismissed on stipulation, the plaintiff agreeing to pay all costs.

The case of Thomas Addison vs Henry S. Haywood was stricken from the files and reset for the May term of court.

In the district court suit was brought by Henry S. Haynes against M. E. Pierson on a promissory note for $500. The allegations in the complaint showed the note to have been made in 1902 for the above amount, bearing 7 per cent interest a month. A number of payments are set forth but a balance of $433.33 is alleged to be still due. Attorney fees are also asked in the sum of $50.

In the county court the motion of plaintiff asking for greater security for costs in the case of Charles Denman against Walter Campbell was denied.

Albert Calvin, arrested several days ago on a charge of criminal assault, was released by Judge Orr on a bond of $200.

In the police court Jack Smith was recaptured under the terms of the fine of $25 and costs imposed against him Monday. John Jansen was fined $20 and costs on the charge of vagrancy.

What can be cured in the beginning in a week or two by using Peruna, if allowed to become chronic, may require months of faithful treatment. You had better take Peruna now, for by and by you may be obliged to take it for some time in order to get well. Now the balmy weather will assist in your cure. You are not liable to catch fresh cold and delay your cure.

C. D. Taylor, Asst. of the 4th Clerk City Board of Health, Jacksonville, Fla., writes:

"The health of the people of a large city is always a question of vital interest not only to the city officials but to every citizen. It has been a source of much satisfaction to me to find that so large a number of working people in moderate circumstances have accepted Peruna as their family medicine. I have cured a large number of cases especially of catarrh of the head, lungs and stomach, and by using Peruna the general health is almost sure to improve. It is a help and blessing to any community where it is generally adopted and used. I have found it an honest, reliable remedy and am pleased to indorse it."—C. D. Taylor, Asst. Clerk Board of Health.

Charles D. Scott, County Clerk Floyd county, Ind., from New Albany, Ind., writes:

"I have tried Peruna as a tonic and have found it of inestimable value to increase the appetite and induce healthful sleep. It seems to relieve the system of all waste matter and tones up and strengthens the nerves in a remarkably short time. In comparing it with other nerve tonics in the market I consider it vastly superior to and above many others who have tried it."—Hon. Charles D. Scott.

Peruna strengthens a weak nerve, not by temporarily stimulating them, but by removing the cause from the nerve centers. This is the only cure that lasts. Remove the cause, nature will do the rest. Peruna removes the cause.

HARVARD STUDENTS ARE COMING HERE TO WALK THROUGH DEPTHS OF AGES

Harvard university has directed its attention to the Garden of the Gods and Manitou. The rocks and fossils that have guided thousands of visitors will again be under fire. The inspection will be by scientists and it is possible that Professor C. H. White will discover something that will make the Garden more famous.

A message received in Colorado Springs yesterday states that arrangements have been completed for the excursion tour. Under the direction of Professor C. H. White a party of Harvard students will come equipped for the purpose of geological investigation in the vicinity of Colorado Springs. The party will organize in Denver July 3 and will immediately visit the Garden. Later in the month the expedition will visit other portions of Colorado and will devote themselves to mineralogy as a side issue.

The fact that the geological formations of the Rocky Mountains will be studied indicates that the fame of the nature curiosities and the wonderful formations encountered in Colorado has not only spread among geologists of the east but will become a fruitful source of study in the future for classes in geology. The Harvard alumni of Colorado Springs will entertain and make pleasant the visit of Professor White's class.

Past Master Has Started Bookkeeping in Disorder

Accountant E. S. Buch, who has been investigating the records of the office of ex-Building Inspector E. C. Coray, has been at work for several days on a system of bookkeeping for the city storekeeper. The new system will keep a perfect check on all the departments of the city and every article taken from the city's store rooms will be charged against the department taking it out. Heretofore the bookkeeping system prevailing in the storekeeper's office was lacking in this regard.

The principal book kept in the office in the past has been in the nature of a day book and all the items were jumbled together in such a manner that it was impossible to learn what department had taken a certain article, and when it was taken, unless the entire record was gone over. The new system will be started on the ledger plan and the pages of the records will be ruled so as to show the date, the article, the purpose for which wanted, and the department against which it is charged.

The city council at its last meeting confirmed the selection of A. C. Taylor for the position of city storekeeper and he will transfer his accounts from his old books to the new as soon as Mr. Buch has completed the system and the books have been plotted. It is understood that the finance committee of the council will have to do some work done for several of the other other offices of the city. It is the desire of Chairman Dunbar of the committee to get the offices working on a systematic basis.

YOUNG MEN'S CONGRESS DEBATES IMPORTANT QUESTION

"The Restriction of Immigration" was the subject discussed last night by the Y. M. C. A. congress. The original bill introduced provided that no person should be allowed to enter the country for 10 years unless possessed of at least $2,000. The bill was amended several times but finally the amendments including the original bill were stricken out and a substitute offered which provided that no person should be allowed to enter the country over 25 years of age and that all under that age should have at least $100 in their possession.

THE GRAND JURY WILL BE DISCHARGED WEDNESDAY

CONTINUE INVESTIGATIONS

It was unofficially announced yesterday that a new grand jury would take the place of the present body at the expiration of its term of existence. As all daily activities in the life of the present body will come to an end Monday, the last day on which it could do business will be next week in court, it can only be by the reselection of the present jury or by the impaneling of another.

It was given out yesterday that the case now before the grand jury was of such magnitude that it was impossible to complete it in the time yet remaining. This makes the selection of a new grand jury imperative, unless the work so far undertaken is to be discontinued. From all indications, however, this will not be the decision of the court of the district attorney.

Quite a number of witnesses were examined by the grand jury yesterday, among whom were several connected with the police department of Colorado City. As already announced, the jury has before it the consideration of several city and county offices and indictments in this connection are expected within a few days. The investigation into the facts surrounding the purchase of the Seven Lakes water system by the city is still before the grand jury and it is probable that results will be announced before long.

Yesterday's session was a long one, lasting from 10 o'clock in the morning till 6 o'clock in the afternoon, and the witnesses examined, it is understood, testified concerning all the matters now under consideration. As stated yesterday, there are a number of instances where the issuance of indictments is being deferred owing to the absence of a link in the chain of evidence. With the forming of these links the informations will be filed and capiases placed in the hands of Sheriff Gilbert.

Deputy Clerk Not Named Pending Civil Service Report

It is probable that the arbitration board in the matter of the Popejoy claim against the county commissioners will be selected today. F. E. Eldbrooke of Denver, who is representing the commissioners, will arrive in the city this morning and a conference will be arranged between him and R. P. Duff, the representative of the Popejoy interests. It is said by the commissioners that the third member of the board has been practically agreed upon, but they will not give out his name until the matter has been finally determined.

With the selection of the board the work will be taken up at once and a report made as soon as possible. As stated some time ago, the inquiry of the board will be directed toward a reading of the plans and specifications of Architect A. J. Smith. Popejoy claims the sum of $2,600 which he says is due him for extra work done in connection with the plastering of the new building.

KING EDWARD'S [illegible] UP).

KING EDWARD holds in taking time by the forelock. He has just concluded a trip "around the circle" in Europe, and it is everywhere conceded that the journey was very fruitful for the empire.

It brought about a state of good feeling between Great Britain and the other nations of Europe such as has not been for many decades. France, especially, is said to be more kindly disposed toward the Britisher than she has for 100 years.

In view of his good work as an advance agent of peace and harmony Edward feels that the time is opportune to ask parliament for a slight raise in salary amounting to $150,000. This will increase his annual allowance to $1,500,000, or $5,500,000.

It seems likely that parliament will grant this modest request. A man with seven or eight houses on his hands, containing from 50 to 150 rooms each, can't [illegible] at every hour of the day. The war thing over—Edward takes this to his credit, also—and British finances being a trifle easier, his majesty no doubt thinks himself entitled in making this trifling request.

The wonder is that he has delayed so long, when everyone knows that he is always waiting for pay day.

IMPORTATION OF LABOR.

ONE clause of the immigration law passed last spring by congress is attracting particular attention just now. It is as follows:

"That skilled labor may be imported if like kind unemployed cannot be found in this country."

The department has ruled that there can be but one construction of this law, and that if it can be shown beyond a reasonable doubt that scarcity of labor exists, artificers may be imported under contract or otherwise.

In the case brought before the treasury department the industries of the country will be benefited rather than injured. A Philadelphia firm proposes to bring an entire Kensington from Europe, and to import the lace makers with it, in an effort to establish the lace making industry in this country. It is stated that 90 per cent of the lace used in this country is imported, and if a big industry can be built up it will be a good thing for wage earners and people in general.

BUILDING PERMITS WERE ISSUED

BUT NO RECORD OF WATER RENTS

[illegible] Surveyor Accountant Finds Discrepancies [illegible] Water Department Increase the Work of Assessor's Office.

J. M. Bach, who has had charge of the investigation into the affairs of the office of building inspector W. C. Corey, said yesterday that conditions during the time that office was operated by him to the board of council at its meeting next Tuesday night. The discrepancies, he stated, will cover a field nearly half as large as that embraced in the report made to the last meeting. Under the Bach will show over 200 instances where the building inspector's records contain a record of building permits issued, but no record whatever of any collection having been made for the work called in construction purposes, and neither is there any record of such work on the books of Water Commissioner H. C. Davis.

In some instances where the city inspectors have failed to have the water used for the construction of buildings costing several thousand dollars. The largest of these is the Presbyterian church at Tejon and Cache la Poudre streets. The records also show [illegible] as having been placed [illegible] scaling in all nearly [illegible] for which no charge for water was made. For what purposes appears on the face of either the water commissioner or building inspector.

Under the law these amounts should have been collected by the respective officers, but as was shown by Accountant Bach in the early part of his present investigation, a great deal of the bookkeeping was done by Corey without any objection from the water commissioner. The amount of money involved in these discrepancies has not yet been determined by Mr. Bach as the list is not yet complete. In speaking of the additional report yesterday Mr. Bach said: "The report will cover about 200 houses, the largest of which is the new hotel costing 10,000, according to the building permit. The cost of the other buildings ranges from $150 to $7,000. There is no record whatever of any money having been collected for the water used in the construction of these buildings and following my report of the matter to the council at its next meeting, it is safe to say that another canvass will be made for the purpose of determining whether the entries were merely overlooked or were left out purposely. The work we now have in hand will take at least another week, as it is being done almost entirely by our canvassers, very few persons calling voluntarily. After the present work is finished we will doubtless put the same canvassers to work sifting out the other matter."

Nearly all the reports made yesterday have turned in by the canvassers, very few people calling at the office. There was in all about $50 accounted for, of which amount the returns showed nearly two-thirds of it to have been turned over to Corey or his assistants.

D. R. Tripp, one of those who reported yesterday stated that he had paid in all, for the erection of a number of houses, the sum of $900. For this amount he says he was given receipts for only $300. Some of these items are not included in the discrepancies found by Accountant Bach, and he will make a further investigation for the purpose of straightening out the books. The canvassers will continue the work today and report their findings this evening.

CLOSES THE SEASON

The Winter Night club held its last meeting this season at the Antlers hotel last evening, and a brilliant debate, marked with profound observation, broad wit and humor, with sentiment, made the meeting one of the most attractive the club has held. The topic of the meeting was "Recent Political and Social Movements in Great Britain," and President W. F. Slocum of Colorado college was the chief speaker.

There was a large attendance. The guests were placed in the form of the letter T in the cafe and the usual menu, if anything more palatable at this the last meeting until next autumn, was served. It was then that the meeting was declared adjourned until next autumn.

Chairman Stewart introduced President Slocum, who was received with hearty applause. Dr. Slocum began by saying that in America we can learn something from all the leading nations of Europe: Italy, with its struggle for liberty, its development in art, its industrial education and study in [illegible]; France, with its skill in finance, its knowledge of art and archaeology; Germany, with its connection of thorough training in university, army and [illegible]; Russia, with its conception of evidence, and, above all, England, with her great intellectual and moral forces, has something to contribute to the American who is seeking for [illegible] for his country.

The Bensonizer Treatment Cures Consumption

You can be easily and permanently cured with the Bensonizer treatment, a highly scientific method of administering germicidal remedies through inhalation. It reaches the germs. It kills them, soothes and heals the delicate and diseased lung tissue. You are cured to stay cured. Don't let anyone keep you from getting well. Satisfy yourself.

Others perhaps worse than you, have been made well. Remember, you are not placing yourself in the hands of quacks or ignoramuses, but specialists who have had over thirty years' experience in treating chronic cases in Medical Institutes and Sanitariums.

Life is short at the best, and there is very little time in which to get this grand, new method before the people. While you are waiting to see others cured you may get beyond help.

Other cases can be referred to. Let them tell you their story by word of mouth.

Mr. A. O. Pointer, 426 E. Villamette street, came from Michigan nine years ago. He received some improvement from the climate, but the germs were still there. After thirty days' treatment at a scientific examination by the city bacteriologist showed an entire absence of bacilli. He is now a well man and able to attend to a most arduous business.

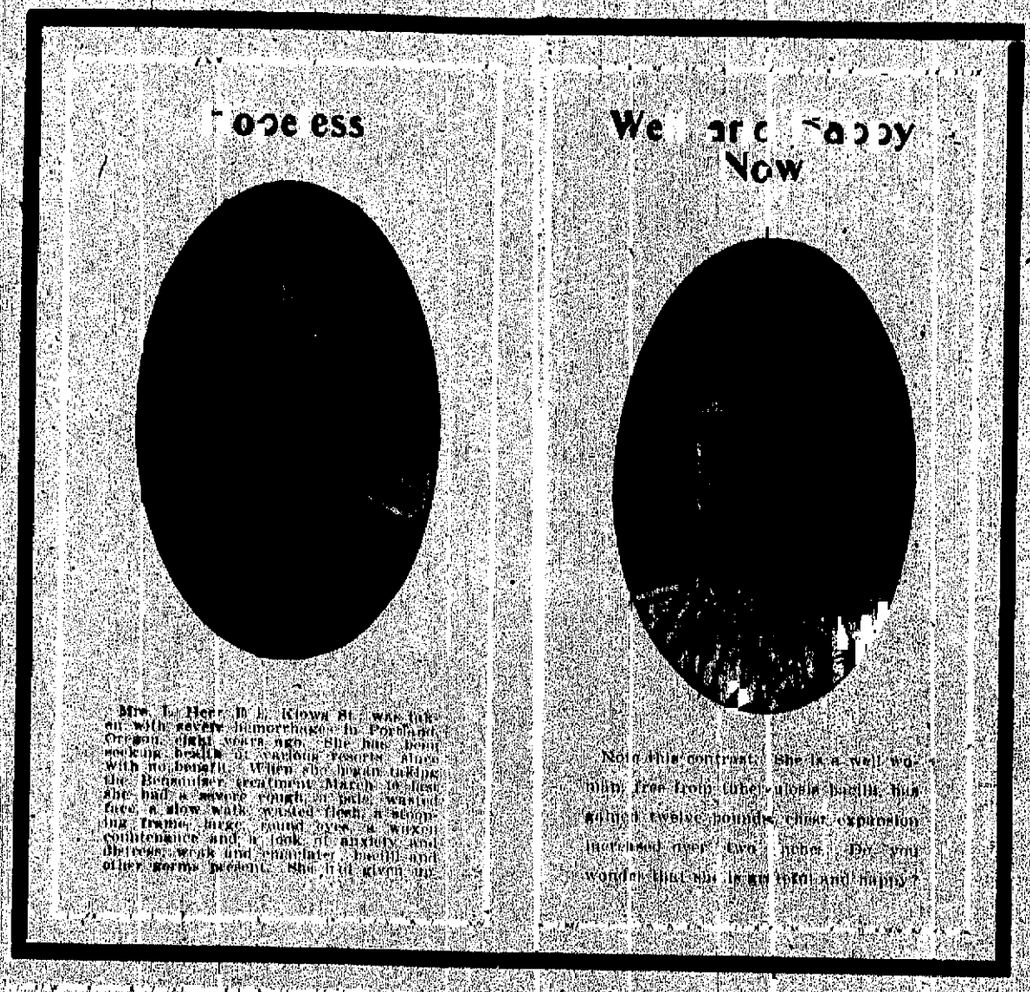
Mr. L. C. Reid, 500 S. El Paso street, is rapidly recovering. He considers the treatment of inestimable value in his case.

Mrs. J. R. Reese of 618 E. Boulder street was considered a hopeless case by all the doctors she consulted, but is now well on the way to recovery.

Mr. B. Salisch, 604 N. Nevada avenue, will soon be discharged cured.

Mr. B. A. Griffith, 10 Oak street, was in the third stages of consumption when he began the treatment. Now he is able to do light work and in thirty days will be well.

Others now under treatment were given very little hope of recovery and yet are doing well under this marvelous new method of treatment. It has proved its worth, and yet there may be greater possibilities before us. We don't know how bad a case can be cured by it. It fairly raises the dead.



Hon. Thomas McClelland, Justice of the Peace, new County Court House, at death's door of lingering consumption of 17 years standing is now rapidly recovering under the Bensonizer Treatment.

the states men and thinkers of that nation. He believed that in the future there were three great nations will all of them hold pieces of pre-eminent leadership, but that more than anything else that will depend upon the moral forces which are at work in them, upon the ideals with which they treat other nations and upon that large spirit of right which firmly seek to render service to others who are in need. The strength of that nation lies pre-eminently, not in its ships and armies, but in the way in which the principles of liberty and right are manifested by them throughout the world.

Rev. Alva Ray Scott.

Rev. Alva Ray Scott of All Souls' Unitarian church followed Dr. Slocum. He said that the transition of industrial forces among the British people is attracting the attention of the manufacturing industries of the whole world. In a lasting manner he told of profit-sharing and co-operative associations in Great Britain, and of how one great soap manufactory was working on a co-operative basis which is sending agents to this country to secure supplies. He told of the attack on municipal ownership now being made at Birmingham, England where capital is contesting a bitter fight against it. He then continuing:

"Great Britain is teaching an important lesson in regard to socialistic questions. Especially is this true in regard to pauperism and crime. It is undoubtedly true that the great countries of Europe have more of a mastery than we have of the great questions of the day. I believe that the most dangerous battle and struggle will be in this country, here we have such a polyglot lot of people coming from all sections of the world, bringing in their heritage of ideas. The enormous expansion of business has resulted as a natural bent toward concentration of capital, concentration of energy. We hear on every side a cry against it. On one side a smaller merchant and manufacturer is being crushed down on the side of the labor union there is a fight against the disorganized or non-union forces. Some day, possibly these two great bodies will come into conflict. Many efforts have been made to solve the difficulty and by using always a peaceful solution, but never can there be a time in the history of the world when danger has been so imminent, when the clash of ill-feeling so apparent.

Transitory Movement.

The great socialistic movement has attempted a solution and has been going through a process of transition. In Chicago years ago I attended meetings of anarchists and socialists. In those meetings the great cry was for revolutionary methods. They expected it would take place shortly, within fifteen years a new order of affairs would be instituted. It was the cry of the poor against the rich in the bitterest sense. I have noticed lately a gradual softening of feeling among the leaders. They are looking more toward reform and evolution. The socialists elected to the parliaments of the different nations, such as the reichstag in Germany, have modified their views as they have come into contact with other people. Within the past few years these socialistic people have had opportunity to put into practice several of their ideas. In Belgium there are some 3,000 co-operative establishments. They have found many of their Utopian ideas impracticable. When it came to working out principles they found they must go along business lines. They found they had to acknowledge piece work, a matter in opposition to socialistic ideas. It goes to show that the socialistic laws everywhere are being somewhat modified. Possibly they have had some effect on the great capitalistic side, as shown in the large number of co-operative and profit-sharing establishments. Again, in nearly all our industrial systems there has been a growing liberality to the man employed, the great railroads are taking special pains for the enlightenment and pleasure of the men in their employ.

Municipal Control.

"A word in regard to municipal control of public utilities. In Great Britain $6,000,000 of property is owned by municipalities and $4,000,000 is owned by private corporations. Those figures, I think you will agree, are significant. It may be that in this country until we reach the higher standard of municipal politics it will be unwise to try municipal ownership. But the great safeguard lies in the enlightenment of the people generally. There are many men on the capitalistic side who are unfamiliar with the unions [illegible] ably conducted as they are. People must be taught to have talks [illegible] with one another."

Rev. N. R. Richtmyer was called upon but stated that anyone attending to such a topic as that would be vitally shocked not to it without thorough investigation and study. He reflected on the remarks that had been made on the relation of America to England and [illegible] that as he felt strongly on that question he would say a few words. He continued:

"I cannot speak from extended observation. From a limited observation I am confident that the feeling [illegible] in England is much more friendly to America and to the United States than it is to the English trade schools [illegible] and are taking to America for enlightenment. Character in the last analysis is the foundation of the nation's greatness and if we intend to dominate the world in the future we should see to it that our growth is along proper lines. No new race but knows the wonderful influence of environment and we have developed a distinct type in the 125 years we have been in existence as a nation. Along the line of the development of the natural resources of the country the American of today is like the German, the Irish, the French or some other foreigner. But how we may very well turn to Europe and find what is best for the future. The right should be made secondary.

Deference to Echo.ars.

No one visits the countries of the Old World and fails to note the deference to those men who have accomplished something in the line of scientific development, men of letters, artists, to men in all those departments of labor. It is interesting to speculate upon upon what is to be the plane of culture of this country if we do not turn in that direction. There is no doubt of the domination of America in years to come. Europe has a million ties in way, for us and a little mingling of jealousy. That is due to what we have accomplished. I believe it fair to say that in many sections of this country there is strong antagonism to anything English, and it is unfounded. The influence that we exert on the life and thought in England is one [illegible] It was said to me while over there that if anything should happen to the royal family and no one would appear suitable for the throne, that the royal family in England would die out, no successor would take its place. That has been the influence of America and its effects are seen in every country in the world. We have not sent out missionaries, but the work has been well done. We have banished the last monarchy from the western hemisphere and have established real republics in Europe. The idea that a certain number of men in this country should develop an ambition for the acquisition of the wealth of the country is the real cause of the trouble that threatens us. It is this idea that any man who wants advancement, even in the social sense, must first get rich is recognized in American life. It may not be the pleasantest reflection, but I believe it to be true. We must develop a broader culture, a broader charity, to reach the plane on which the men of this country must all stand to work out the destiny of their country."

After the applause Doctor Gregg, pastor of the Congregational church, led the discussion after it was declared open by the chairman. He dwelt upon the remarkable assimilation of the American people, the extraordinary number of foreign names in the public schools, which he characterized as the greatest factor in the work of assimilation.

A Mediating Force.

He likened the coming influence of Russia in Asia as the mediating force between the Occidentals and the Orientals, and will bring into Asia western thought and influence. Prof. H. H. Parsons spoke on the dead hand life of the English people, saying there lay the strength of the English nation. He also spoke of the purity in English politics. He stated that the Oxford and Cambridge idea must be kept if we are to be a world power and America must not run too much after Germany and its technical school. The man trained in the broader school can do the work of a diplomat and is superior to the man who can only present on the broad and fundamental basis. J. B. Stewart held that the wealth the United States is creating is the most normal and natural step in the development in the future of our people, as with wealth goes the power to direct the force of civilization. He noted the exceptions of strong men in American politics, naming the mayor of Baltimore, Folk of St. Louis, Jerome in New York, Johnson in Chicago, Gen. Leonard Wood in Cuba who he said was filled with self-abnegation and devotion to his country and Judge Taft in the Philippines. Prof. Rabbi Goldmark was called and stated emphasis by referring to the Russian Knout and saying that the greatest compliment that could be paid to England was that the Anglo-Saxon could not become the ruler of the Oriental as the Russian did it with the knout. Professor Shedd stated that the man of character will be the leader. In the work of affairs and asked what Creek and Cuffy would do for a man who was building a bridge.

Professor Noyes stated that no study was more broadening than that of literature; we must reach out into the literature of other peoples and the man who studies literature in history is going to be better qualified for the great social questions than the scientific man. He applauded Oxford and Cambridge but said that what was in a man has got to come out. John H. Stephens of Colorado City, representative in the last legislature and a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, stated that he was convinced upon a visit two years ago to the British Isles that the British are superior to the United States in methods of business and are superior to us since the eight-hour clock coming from one race. He stated that the spirit of fairness should prevail between employer and employee. Dr. A. A. Dickey of Philadelphia talked on the old-fashioned college and stated that the best thing he had seen in Colorado Springs was Colorado College which he considered of fashion. It reminded him of his college. He made a plea for its retention in a touching manner that brought enthusiastic applause. Mr. Hastings closed the discussion. With the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" the meeting adjourned.

DEATH OF ENGINEER

A letter received yesterday by Chairman Dunbar of the council finance committee from W. W. Wood, chairman of the executive committee which had charge of the entertainment of President Roosevelt during his stay in the city, details the sums of money spent by the committee in carrying out the arrangements for the entertainment and the amount returned to the city unused.

The council appropriated the sum of $500 for the use of the committee and the letter of Chairman Wood shows $266.05 of the amount to have been spent in carrying out the plans of the committee. The sum of $233.95 will be returned to the city treasury. The latter in full is as follows:

May 12, 1903.

Mr. S. Dunbar, Chairman, Finance Committee, City Council.

Dear Sir:—I inclose you herewith a list following bills which were incurred by me as chairman of the committee on reception to President Roosevelt:

Our West Printing and Stationery Co.	$ 10.00
F. T. Pratt, decorating	50.00
Colorado Midland band	70.00
W. J. Davis, Kentucky stallion	2.10
Johnson & Wilson, ribbon for badges	15.75
Antlers livery, landaus and carriages	48.00
C. S. Barnes & Son, rope	80.00
Russell Iron works, damage to posts borrowed	5.00
W. W. Wood, postage, messenger, telephone, etc.	14.50
	$266.05

This leaves $233.95 of your appropriation unused. These bills I believe are complete. The bill from C. S. Barnes & Son for rope is for the actual price of the rope which was damaged and they did not [illegible] that they could take it back and [illegible] how to anything, for it. I was directed that this rope be delivered to Mr. Taylor, your storekeeper, and I will no doubt, be of use in the city some way in the future.

Trusting that the finishing of this matter has been handled to your entire satisfaction, I am, very truly yours,

(Signed) W. W. Wood, Chairman.

DEAD CHILD'S FATHER CONFERS WITH LAWTHER

A conference was held yesterday between John W. Lewis, the father of the child who was run over by a milk wagon in Colorado City Saturday afternoon, and Fred J. Lawther, the owner and driver of the wagon. It was announced by Lewis last night that an agreement satisfactory to both had been reached. He refused to state the terms of the agreement, however. It is understood that it was on the basis of the payment of the funeral expenses by Lawther.

"JEMP" SAYS HE'LL STAY UP IN MILWAUKEE

According to press dispatches, Frank Hemphill, the erring member of last year's Millionaire [illegible], has gone to Milwaukee to play ball. He signed with Joe Cantillon's American association team. Hemphill agreed to play with Cantillon when the latter was here last fall with the All-Nix teams and at that time received $[illegible] advance money from the local management. Hemphill decided to go to the outlaw league on the coast, however, leaving both Manager Burns of the local team and Cantillon without permission, and Burns had him suspended. Hemphill was awarded to Colorado Springs by the National association, but as Burns does not want him, Hemphill goes to Cantillon. Hemphill has been playing with Seattle.

COLORADO COLLEGE TIGERS PLAY THE MINES TODAY.

The Colorado College Tigers play Golden today. The team went to Denver over the Colorado & Southern last night. The players will go to Golden early this morning, and will be in excellent shape for the game, after the night's rest in Denver. Much depends upon winning from Golden today, as a victory will mean that the pennant is practically assured for Colorado college.

ROUND THE BASES

Kansas City again today at 3:45.

Jones or Curtis for the locals and probably Hallis for the Lost Ones.

If Hallis isn't any better than Hess, then we'll have to holler.

Yesterday's wind was bad for the fielders. Some of the flies were blown all over the lot before reaching the ground.

In the first Miller flew to left and the wind badly fooled the local fielders. Francks and Granville both started after the ball and Fleming ran up. Fleming was given the chance and missed the ball.

In the first yesterday Hess tried to block Francks at first and McCarty was kind enough to let the runner safe.

Granville made a star catch of Hess' foul off the wire of the left field bleachers in the second and retired the side.

Francks was great with the stick yesterday. Out of five times up, four hits, three runs and a gift. Francks was also at his best on the bases.

In the fourth Umpire McCarty called Hirsch safe at first. It looked to be an out. Granville made a bad throw, but Everitt got it in time to all appearances to put the runner out.

Has anybody questioned the ability of Congalton when it comes to throwing? Congalton made some great throws yesterday to the home plate from right garden.

[illegible] Commencement Week Meeting.

The committee having in charge the examination of the applicants for the position of building inspector, met in the office of I. A. Peaks in the Reed block last evening. The examination papers were gone partly over and the answers of the various applicants graded. City Engineer E. W. Chaves, who is ex-officio chairman of the committee, said after the meeting had adjourned that the papers had been about half gone over. The result that far indicated, he said, that most of the applicants would qualify. Under the rules adopted the names of all those who make a percentage of 80 or over will be placed before the council at its meeting Monday night. The respective grades made by the applicants will not be announced to the council and every applicant who qualifies will go before the members of that body on an equal footing. From among those naming a new building inspector will be selected. The committee, at its adjournment last night, decided to meet again for the completion of the grading tomorrow night.

[illegible] Conference

A resolution was passed by the county commissioners yesterday which provides for the selection of a committee of three whose duty it will be to make a thorough investigation of the plastering in the new county court house and report the result of its findings to the commissioners. The personnel of the committee will be selected today. This action on the part of the commissioners was prompted by the rumors current regarding the plastering on several of the rooms of the new building.

The ceiling space of the criminal court room is so large that it has been argued by some that it was too heavy to stand. The committee will have the plans and specifications of the architect, and its report will go over the matter thoroughly. The board of county commissioners will abide by the result of the committee's findings.

In a few days the old court house at Kiowa street and Nevada avenue will be given a new roof to be followed in the course of a few weeks by a new coat of paint. The upper floor has been leased for lodge purposes and the lower floor will be remodeled to suit whatever tenant may be secured. L. Dart, the agent for the Stratton estate, which owns the building, said yesterday that he would not remodel the lower floor until the space had been rented. He estimates that he will not have much trouble in finding tenants.

The high school boys of the state who are to compete in the events of the field meet at Boulder on Saturday are making earnest protest against one of the rules announced by the management of the meet. The rule in full prohibits ankle and calf bands upon the contestants during the afternoon, the reason given being that those who have bought seats in the stand to witness the sports have made that demand. The boys object to the rule, as it will compel some of the runners to attempt four heats during the four hours which is, they say, too much to ask. The boys wish to have all the trial heats run off in the morning, commencing at about 10 o'clock, as has been the custom. A meeting of the association is to be held previous to the meet and at that time the protests will be made to the authorities.

Interest in the meet is growing especially in the dashes for the sprinters. For the past two years Annis of East Denver High school has had a pretty sure thing of the 100 and 220-yard dashes, being conceded to be the fastest man in the state at those distances. This year two men are being prepared in the hope that one will prove too fast for the East Denver man. One is Vreeland of Manual Training High school of Denver, another is Bewley, the crack 50-yard man of North Denver High school, and the third is a youth from Canon City who has been clocking up the nags in the southern part of the state. This sprint is likely to be the event of the day and will surely be so if one of the outsiders can succeed in outfooting Annis. Nevitt will be among those to represent Colorado Springs High school in this event. Nevitt has done good work on the track and should make a creditable showing for the Springs.

Martel of Central High school in Pueblo is doing fine work in his practice for the broad jump and hammer throw. He is jumping over 21 feet and now holds the state interscholastic record for the broad jump. Loveland of East Denver is great hopeful of the hammer throw, as he has mastered the double turn. Lanigan of East Denver is looking to win the pole vault, as he has made nine feet, six inches in practice.

The Colorado Springs team will leave for Boulder Friday evening.

The list of entries in which the Colorado Springs High school will participate at the Boulder meet has been revised. The new list follows:

100-yard dash—Nevitt, Sexton, Hall.
220-yard dash—Nevitt, Sexton, Fowler.
440-yard run—Nevitt, Sexton, Fowler.
880-yard run—Nevitt, Sexton, Lennox.
120-yard hurdle—Shreve, Fowler, Lennox.
220-yard hurdles—Shreve, Fowler, Lennox.
Shot put—Howbert, Bill, Fowler.
Hammer throw—Howbert, Lennox, Fowler.
High jump—Booth, Sims, Sheafor.
Running broad—Bartlett, Booth, Howbert.
Pole vault—Nevitt, Bartlett, Howbert.
Relay race—L. Nevitt, 2; Sheafor, 3; Hall, 4; Fowler, 5; Pelton, 6; Lennox, 7.

Gold Coin Cycle.

The Golden Cycle company is pushing development work in the bottom level at a depth of ...00 feet, where the showing is much better than at any point heretofore opened in the big producer.

In this level only one vein has been opened so far, that being the Legal Tender, but it is much larger and has proved of better grade than at any place above. There are five other known veins yet to be cut in this level, besides numerous spurs from the veins, all of which are known to contain ore shoots.

From the standpoint of development, everyone is gratified with the present showing of this property, and it is quite a frequent statement that the Golden Cycle is one of the biggest propositions in the greatest gold camp. In regard to the water proposition in this mine, the pumps are now handling about 60 gallons of water per minute, this being handled through the tunnel level.

On Rhyolite Mountain.

Extensive mining operations are to be started very shortly on Rhyolite mountain, and the men back of the enterprise are able to carry forward the plans they have outlined.

A company of local men who have faith in this hill are ready and willing to go ahead and make a big outlay of money. It is known as the Rhyolite-Beacon company, and a well-known mining engineer of this city will be in charge of the actual development of the company.

A large steam plant of machinery has been purchased, and is now installed on the property, and it is their intention to start operations in an old 60-foot shaft, where sinking will be continued to a depth of 200 feet before any lateral work is performed. Besides property on this hill the company has also required property on Rosebud hill it being their intention to fully prospect this hill and determine its value. The latter hill has been attracting considerable attention of late, since the recent find was made on the Dead Shot, which is now considered one of the shippers of the district.

Gold Bond was traded in at 3, no change being noted in the quotations which have heretofore prevailed. Keystone sold fairly strong at 6¾.

An Early-Day Railroad Wreck.

In the early days of the road, there was a smashup and all were badly shaken up. The next morning a burly farmer limped into the superintendent's office and said: "Mr. Superintendent, I came in to see what you were going to give me for knocking me up so yesterday." The superintendent asked how much he thought he ought to have for his injuries. "Well, I think it is worth fifty cents and I will settle for that." The superintendent replied that it was quite a sum, but as the man seemed honest he would pay him, and he did so, taking his receipt in full. The superintendent said, "I will be there with you and give you a pass to take you home." "No you won't. As long as these pins (slapping his legs) last I won't go on your darn railroad any more."—(From "A Pictoric Railroad," in May National.

EASTERN MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Report from J. S. Vache & Co., to Otis & Hough, Bankers and Brokers, 127 Pike's Peak Ave.

New York, May 12.—Strength was shown in list on buying by the traders, who were disposed to take the long side. The exception was Pennsylvania, which was sold on heavy transactions by Philadelphia interests against the rights for new issues of stock. The strength in St. Louis and San Francisco was thought to be a part of the manipulation towards securing a good market for the new Rock Island bonds. The advance in C. F. and I. was on a report from Denver that the Gould and Rockefeller interests were inspecting the property with a view to taking larger interest in it. The market as a whole notwithstanding its narrowness acts well and we believe it will do better.

From McIntyre & Marshall—Another attempt was made in the early trading today to revive bullish speculation by inaugurating an aggressive bull movement in Missouri Pacific and Wabash stocks and by bidding up with specialties. There was some good buying in C. F. and I. on information that Gould and Rockefeller interests in this property have been recently materially increased. The market ended very tamely with practically no demand for stocks of importance in the room crowd and traders rather discouraged at the failure of their efforts to stimulate any new outside buying. There is nothing in the situation as far as we can see. Holders are becoming tired of the inaction of the market with the carrying charges steadily accumulating. We regard the week-ending price low from with today's quotation down to $1.50 to $2 it ton from recent quotations and the spread of labor troubles, together with the prospect of further coal shipments as potent features which are calculated to continue to hold bull speculation in check and keep the market in a dull and narrow swaying condition.

CHICAGO GRAIN & PROVISIONS.

Furnished by Logan & Bryan to Otis & Hough, Bankers and Brokers, 127 Pike's Peak Ave.

Wheat—Liverpool ⅛ to ¼ lower. Paris unchanged to ¼ lower. Antwerp unchanged. Market was extremely dull and easier. The government report indicates a crop of winter wheat of about 500,000,000. It was about as expected, but is bearish. The cash situation is not encouraging, very little export business being reported from any quarter. The Illinois weekly crop report was mildly bullish. The southwest reports prospects improved by recent rains. California says no rain yet and the crop suffering. Armour was exhibiting selling May wheat when the market would take it. Broomhall reports weather in France improved conditions somewhat, but too much rain in United Kingdom. Weather in Germany favorable with some re-plowing of the earlier damaged fields. Bradstreet's makes the world's visible decrease 6,300,000 against decrease 2,100,000 last year. This market suffers from lack of speculative interest on the outside and if prices have any tendency it seems to be a little lower. Estimated cars 30.

Corn—Liverpool ⅛ to ¼ higher. Market here was only moderately active but the tone was firm. Along with increasing receipts there is a good cash demand. There is some apprehension in regard to the planting by reason of continued rains. This made some speculative buying and some covering of shorts in this market today. The quality of the arrivals of corn seems to be improving. Cash market in the northwest firm. Estimated cars, 180.

Oats—Market was rather more active. There is no improvement in the cash situation but with the tendency of the weather west throughout the week there is a speculative buying of July and September. It is not a large market, however. Estimated cars, 50.

Provisions—Market is a shade higher. Receipts, hogs, 31,000 against 32,000 last year. There was selling early by foreign houses and buying later by brokers supposed to be for Swift and Armour. It is a dull market however in a speculative way and no material improvement in cash demand is reported. Receipts hogs keep fully up to expectations and the quality is good.

PARKER RETURNS TO KANSAS OIL FIELDS

James H. Parker leaves this morning for Independence, Kansas, to look after the oil and gas interests which he and others have recently acquired in that section. Mr. Parker states that there is much local interest in the Kansas fields and that Colorado Springs people have leased considerable ground. Up to this time those who have been pushing the development of the oil field are Mr. Parker, James A. Dreschuigh, George S. Dixon, Dr. S. G. Bartlett, and more recently J. W. Perriday, who has just returned from a 10 days visit to the oil and gas regions. Mr. Perriday agrees with those here who have investigated the territory, that there is bound to be a big field and all that is needed is strong development. It is understood that Mr. Perriday has become interested in a lease. Mr. Parker reports an influx of eastern people into the field, many of them are said to have had experience in the eastern oil regions.

MALLEY IN TWELFTH

[illegible] Work [illegible] Sparkling Style [illegible] Was Again [illegible]

Jim Flynn of Pueblo.

Jim Flynn of Pueblo, and Billy Malley of this city, in the twelfth round went to the floors at the Rovers Athletic club in Pueblo last night.

The fight was witnessed by a crowd that filled the club hall to the doors, standing room only. The club had made elaborate preparations to handle the crowd and people were packed about the five entrances. Over 175 persons, both of Malley of this city, sat down on the special train run from here.

Flynn was acknowledged to be one of the cleanest and cleverest fighters in Pueblo. Both men were on their mettle all the way through and the club house rang nearly all the time with the cheers of the supporters of the two rivals.

Fiercely Contested.

The fight was fiercely contested from start to finish and both men suffered considerable punishment. Malley received bad blows on the nose and mouth that caused the blood to flow in streams. Malley's hand was badly sprained when he hit in the twelfth round. It was reported that Flynn's jaw was broken in the first round. Flynn fainted in the dressing room after the fight and plainly showed that he had been taxed to his utmost.

Malley's Fine Fight.

Malley put up a fight that is a credit to him. He was game to the finish and persisted in rushing into the ring after his nose was broken and he could hardly breathe for the blood that filled his nostrils.

On points Malley was by far the more clever. In foot work, in skating, in ducking and in general headwork he was far superior to his opponent. Where Malley was quick and was in ring backing. Behind Flynn was Johnny Yeoman, of Denver, one of the best trainers in the state. Kid Bennett of Cripple Cave, who appeared in the preliminaries, seconded Malley. It was the consensus of opinion that Malley should have pushed the fight from the start, instead acting reasonably upon Bennett's and his other men's advice. Malley was cautious and allowed Flynn to get his bearings and slowly outbest him. Flynn's ring experience gave him a decided advantage. Malley as the scientific boxer was all right, but when it came to hammer and tongs fighting before the crowd, Malley lost his head. Flynn has been in three good bouts within the last six or eight months, has train in four good fights with "Cyclone" Kelley, Ed Kelley, Yale and Cotton. Malley, on the other hand, has been in but one fight that could be called a fight in his ring experience. This was with Pete Byer, in Waco, Texas, two years ago. He has been in several preliminaries since but in no regular fight. The showing made by Malley was excellent and, with more experience, he should be able to put the big mitt on Flynn in great shape.

The Preliminaries.

Two preliminaries of five rounds between "Kid" Beam of Pueblo and "Buck" Kline of Cripple Creek, and one of 10 rounds between "Kid" Bennett of Cripple Creek and "Young" Hoffman of Pueblo, were pulled off. The former was called a draw by Referee Patsy McCartney. Bennett knocked out Hoffman in the first round of their preliminary with two short lefts to the jaw. This prelim was five during the two minutes allotted, but the first was a farce, no blows of consequence being exchanged. After the preliminaries, "Young" Hoffman challenged any Pueblo of all sounds.

Morgan Williams, the Victor pug was then introduced and it was announced that Williams would fight Flynn whether he won or lost on May 30 in Pueblo.

The Main Next.

Malley and Flynn entered the ring at 9:35 and shook hands amid the cheers of the spectators. Malley was pale and displayed considerable nervousness. Flynn looked confident and his supporters felt sod.

Referee "Patsy" Adams of Pueblo then announced that Johnny Yeoman of Denver would be in Flynn's corner, while "Kid" Bennett would back Malley. "Chick" Coleman and "Stiffy" Jones were named as Flynn's other seconds, while "Skin" Canday and "Jack" Deane went in for Malley. "Billy" King, colored, who has done most of the work with Malley during training, was due to back Malley but was excluded from the ring on account of color. This can be considered a factor against Malley as King was in favor of an aggressive policy from the start.

"Skin" Canday acted as timer for Malley, while Jack Carbaley officiated for Flynn. It was stated that in one of the instances long tide was rung in on Malley and that Canday could not get the bell at the right time. The gong sounded for the 1st round at 9:47.

First Round.

Round 2. They clinch at the start. Malley swings right for head when they break but Flynn ducks. Flynn leads left and right and Malley counters left and right. Flynn rushes Malley around the ring and Malley clinches. Flynn leads left to face but misses, again leads left for same place with Malley puts left to body. Flynn leads left lightly on face, but in striking with Malley ducks vicious right swing to body. Ducks another one but Flynn misses but wild. Malley's round. Flynn hits Malley two blows in face after gong sounds.

Round 7. Malley appears fresher when he goes to the center of the ring. Flynn sends Malley to the ropes with a left to right jab to the body and they exchange fast blows. Flynn ducks left and right and puts left to the face. Malley does good foot work and avoids punishment. Malley backs to the ropes before strong left and right and dodges another swing with Flynn's left. Malley pounds Flynn on back. Flynn puts left to the face and they exchange left and right blows. Malley puts strong left to the chest and follows with left to the face as the gong sounds. This round is about even.

Round 8. Both men appear fagged when they leave their corners. Flynn sends right to the body but it falls lightly. Both men are working cautiously. Flynn leads left and right to the face but Malley dodges and counters with a left and right uppercut to Flynn's face. Puts left to face while Flynn leads for the body, sending in good punch. Malley sends right to the face and again with his right lands on Flynn's chin. Flynn ducks another blow of the same kind and counters with right to the face. Malley leads with left and right to the head but misses and they clinch. Flynn goes in the ropes before light left and right but dodges a left to the face and a left and right to the chest. Malley is suddenly aggressive and lands left to head but Flynn escapes and feints with light right to the face.

The local supporters were game to the end and supported Malley in great fashion. Should the two men meet at any time in the near future, there are many who would really back the local man for any amount.

Flynn got 70 per cent of 60 per cent of the net gate receipts. Malley got 25 per cent. Flynn also won a side bet of $250.

Yonkers, N. Y., May 12.—E. W. Hollis, who was asked by President Roosevelt to act in the capacity of umpire in the Venezuelan dispute, said tonight that he would decline the honor. He would not state whether he had notified President Roosevelt to this effect, but he intimated that he had.

LIVELY TIME ON TRAIN

Coming back to Colorado Springs today [illegible] was indulged by some on the train and from this it passed on to shoving and quarreling. Soon this sort of conduct was objected to by some, whereupon certain ones made themselves more objectionable and soon started a fight which increased as the minutes passed. One of the participants jumped on to a seat and took aim with a beer bottle at a group who were trying to escape from the disgraceful scene. It struck a noncombatant squarely on the head, cutting his scalp and making a nasty wound. The young man struck fell to the floor and it was thought for a moment that he had been killed, which caused a general scramble for the rear door. Immediately after some of the passengers commenced firing revolvers and the scene was one of pandemonium for a few minutes, but peace was quickly secured and no further trouble occurred.

Special Session of Union Men Called for Tonight.

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, May 12.—The strike situation here rests on a foundation of uncertainty. Exactly what action will be taken by the labor element will not be known until tomorrow night after the meeting of the labor representatives. The executive committee issued the following call this afternoon:

"A call is hereby made for all delegates of the two trades assemblies and the building trades council to meet in room 30, Gettysburg building, Wednesday evening, May 13, to consider the labor situation in this city. Representatives of unconnected unions are also invited to be present. The situation demands that each and every delegate to these central labor bodies be prompt in attendance.

"By the executive committee of organized labor.

"D. C. Coates, Chairman.
"J. W. White, Secretary."

The Day's Developments.

Today's developments, outside of the call issued, consisted of nothing more important than the request on the part of a committee from the food trades council that employers sign the contract in relation to the scale of wages and hours of employes of grocery stores and butcher shops. Without one exception, the requests were refused by the proprietors. The unions withdrew, stating that if there were objectionable features in the contract, they were willing to sit together and arbitrate the difference. There is a growing sentiment among unions that contracts are not to their advantage. By no means, however, have the strike clouds cleared from over either side.

Employers claim the contracts presented by the unions are not fair, chiefly because if a union violates its contract, the employer has no recourse, while the union may claim damages if the employer violates the contract.

Right of Picketing.

The fire and police board was busy all morning trying to find a law that would determine the question of the right of no strikers to maintain pickets in front of boycotted stores. Counsel for the board, E. F. Richardson, upholds picketing and gave his opinion on the subject, which summarized is as follows:

"Under certain conditions, organized labor in my opinion, has the right to both boycott and picket a house which is deemed unfair. The union men must not use coercion, intimidation, threats nor loud and boisterous language. The union man must not be with a crowd that disturbs the peace of a locality nor make a nuisance of loud oaths or other demonstrations. He must not use violence or force. As I understand the law, a union man may by persuasion and quiet inducement picket a business house and use all means at his command, except those I have mentioned, to urge people not to give their patronage to such a place. There is nothing either in the civil or criminal laws as I understand them, to prevent him from so doing."

Still Working for Peace.

Notwithstanding the general expectancy that a complete tie-up will be declared, there are some in the alliance, the conservative element, who are working for an adjustment of the difficulties on a fair basis, and still desire arbitration. The leading attorney for the Citizens' alliance, James H. Blood, thinks there are still prospects of arbitration and says he sees no reason why the present differences cannot be adjusted if both sides would agree to a fair basis of arbitration. Mr. Blood thinks that neither of the contending interests have fully understood each other, and believes that if both sides to the controversy get together coolly deliberately and with a purpose of agreeing on some plan for a discontinuation of hostilities that the result would be the satisfactory adjustment of all differences.

The Situation Summarized.

The following is a summary of the trouble: The trouble started when 200 teamsters went on strike because some of their fellow-workers had been discharged, they claim, for joining the Teamsters union.

This trouble started the movement for a Business Mens union and the Citizens alliance, 6,000 strong, is the result.

The bakery proprietors had joined the alliance and refused to sign contracts with the bakers on the grounds that the constitution of the alliance forbids the signing of any wage scale whatever. This caused 75 bakers to strike.

When 150 van drivers requested the renewal of their contracts, their employers refused to sign for the same reason given by the master bakers.

Two hundred grocery clerks, mostly employed by the Danbut Grocery company, struck on the same grounds as the van drivers and bakers.

A total of 625 men are now out on strike and 15,000 other union men stand ready to obey the strike orders.
